

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ROBERT BAUGH,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:14-MJ-00187-BAT

DETENTION ORDER

The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and concludes there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

Defendant is charged with a crime that carries a presumption of detention and has not overcome that presumption. Defendant faces a potential mandatory minimum sentence of ten years of imprisonment and thus has a great incentive to plea. According to the allegations in the complaint the evidence against is strong. He allegedly is a convicted sex offender and according to the government's proffer continues to develop relationships with minors with whom he is not related.

It is therefore ORDERED:

1 (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the
2 Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable,
3 from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

4 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 5 counsel;

6 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 7 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined
8 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 9 connection with a court proceeding; and

10 (4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States
11 Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.

12 DATED this 13th day of May, 2014.
